NBMDA Announces New Member Companies

CHICAGO – NBMDA, the premiere trade association representing wholesale distributors of building materials in North America, is pleased to welcome five new associate members: Brown Wood, Inc., DuPont Building Innovations, Jowat Corporation, Halstead Ceilings & Walls and West Wood Products.

Brown Wood Inc. offers custom wood product solutions for a variety of markets. Located in Lincolnwood, IL, Brown Wood provides cutting edge capabilities, including decorative wood components for kitchen, bath and furniture.

DuPont Building Innovations, with U.S. headquarters in Wilmington, DE, manufactures building solutions under the brands Corian[®] and Zodiaq[®].

Jowat Corporation is a global producer of adhesives and related materials in many industries including wood and furniture manufacturing, paper and packaging products, automotive, graphic arts and textiles. Their U.S. headquarters is based in High Point, NC.

Halstead Ceilings & Walls is located in Norwalk, CT and offers innovative, safe and affordable ceiling and wall products, including acoustical ceiling tiles and wall tiles.

West Wood Products produces UV finished hardwood plywood panels. This new UV product line was introduced ten years ago at their Rancho Dominguez, CA location.

"The addition of these five companies into our membership network further enhances our positive momentum in the area of membership growth while also enhancing the networking value for all members," said Kevin Gammonley, executive vice president of NBMDA. "I am excited to welcome these new members and look forward to meeting their executives and getting them integrated into the NBMDA community."

Distributors, manufacturers and other service providers looking to learn more about an NBMDA membership are encouraged to visit www.nbmda.org.
